NEW DINING CONCEPT FROM VAPIANO

Conveniently located on Great Portland Street, Vapiano's offers informal hassle-free Italian dining, perfect for catching up with friends or for a shopping pit-stop. The décor is light and bright with huge floor to ceiling windows, allowing plenty of natural light onto the deli style restaurant. Since its success in Europe and the US, Vapiano London plans to revolutionise our approach to dining. Each customer is handed a unique chip-card from which to order from the various deli-chefs, who make from fresh whilst you watch.

Feast on long wooden tables, each with its own 'herb-station' - try to get the table with the olive tree growing from its centre. The doricum catarratto, an undiscovered little Sicilian summer white is just divine. Vapiano's unique ordering concept ensures for quick, easy service, allowing you to get back to the shops with the quickest of ease...
